Highs and lows of the holidays

Jerry Nine
Woodward, OK

This time of year, for some people, is their favorite time of year with Christmas get togethers or New Year's celebrations.

For others it is stressful and for some sad. Some people look around at all these other families getting together and they feel alone. And for others it is simply stressful trying to buy all the right gifts or getting ready to entertain.

For others it is a sad time as they don't have the money to do for their family what others are able to do. And then there is the stress of year-end bills and often interest payments for which the rates have more than doubled in the past two years.

And with all the chaos going on in the world it can make you wonder how the United States will actually be free. I hear other Christians who feel we are getting closer to the end of time and for Jesus' return. And for others they do not even believe that will ever happen.

I think for all of us it is important to strive to be happy. And you have a lot of influence on others happiness depending on your attitude. I hate to be around negative people. Take a look at yourself and ask—How do people look at me? Am I enjoyable and fun to be around or am I a pain in the rear always trying to drag others down to my miserable level?

This year's cattle market has been quite a ride. How do you go from $162 February fat cattle to $196 then back to $162? Or March feeders topped $270 in the middle of September and by Dec. 7 back to $210. It boils down to the people who have the money control the market. It's been that way for 100 years.

This past week there was a whole table full of cowboys sitting for breakfast. Then one cowboy mentioned a single lady and said to me, "You ought to go for her then you wouldn't have to come in here for breakfast. You'd have a wife that would fix breakfast for you at home."

I looked around and every one of them were married so I reminded him—"I don't see any of you eating at home."

A friend of mine was in the doctor's office for an esophagus problem. The doctor gave him something to knock him out. And just before he fell asleep the doctor said, "Have you had a colonoscopy before?" He remembers saying to the doctor, "No, I guess go ahead but can you use a different probe?"

What the world needs now more than ever is Christmas. And keep in mind there is one thing and one thing only that will matter when you take your final breath.

"Editor's note: Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattleman who grew up on his family's ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma."

Disturbance at Elk City Store Leads to Arrest

December 28, 2013 - By News Director Jared Atha - An Elk City man was arrested last week after assaulting employees at Walmart.

According to the probable cause affidavit, 26-year-old Samuel David Mitchell was arrested on the afternoon of December 22 and charged earlier this week with assault and battery on a police officer, two counts of assault and battery, one count of assault, malicious injury to property under $1,000 and resisting an officer.

The affidavit said the incident began when police were dispatched to a home in the 700 block of West 5th Street in reference to a male suspect breaking into the home and throwing furniture out of the house.

A short time later, police were dispatched to Walmart in reference to a disturbance.

When they arrived they found the suspect, Mitchell, in the parking lot where he refused commands from the officers. Ultimately officers had to deploy a taser on Mitchell before arresting him.

After speaking with witnesses and Walmart employees, it was determined that Mitchell had shoved two male employees, broke off a piece of point-of-sale machine and threw it at a female employee. Mitchell also allegedly damaged another point-of-sale machine and several other items inside the store before leaving.

It was also determined that the home Mitchell had broke into was his mother's residence. She was not home at the time.

Initial bond for Mitchell was set at $10,000.

His first court appearance has been set for January 4.

Elk City Man Receives Rape Charge

December 27, 2023- By News Director Jared Atha - An Elk City man accused of sexually abusing his foster daughter has been charged in Beckham County District Court.

According to court records, 63-year-old David Leon McGuire was charged last week with first degree rape by instrumentation and lewd or indecent acts to a child under the age of 16 after he confessed to the crimes during an interview with an OSBI agent.

A probable cause affidavit showed that Elk City Police were contacted by a Department of Human Services case worker after the 12-year-old female victim had disclosed to the case worker of the incident.

Police would interview the child where she would say that McGuire had inappropriately touched her while his wife was out of town attending her father's funeral.

The affidavit stated that the defendant initially denied the allegations, but after an OSBI agent performed a polygraph test, McGuire would later admit to the inappropriate touching.

McGuire is currently in the Beckham County Jail on a $500,000 bond.

His next court date is scheduled for February 26.

Allsup's Coming to Elk City

December 28, 2023 - According to a recent article in The Oklahoman, a popular convenience store plans to expand its footprint in Oklahoma with one of the stores planned to be built and opened in Elk City.

Allsup's, a convenience store commonly seen during road trips through Texas and New Mexico, says they plan to open a total of 7 additional stores throughout the state.

That adds to their already 5 locations in Oklahoma that includes stores in Frederick and Altus.

The article indicated that 4 of the new stores are already under construction at Broken Bow, Davis, Tushka, and near the Oklahoma - Texas border in Thackerville.

The 3 other stores, including the new one in Elk City is planned to start construction next month.

No official word one where Allsup's will be located in Elk City.
