"Mike has a simple formula to prove the value of the oiler. "If the cattle aren't swatting flies, they are eating grass, making milk and putting pounds on the baby. And if the babies aren't swatting flies, he's retaining that weight to go to market with. That's all you've got to sell is weight of the cow."

October cattle futures drop

Jerry Nine
Woodward, OK

After the last cattle on feed report, I guess the big boys decided it was time to lower the futures. In five days, October feeder cattle fell $11 per hundredweight.

They are still a good price, but that's a pretty good adjustment. Nobody must have told the slaughter cow and bull market the futures were lower, or else they didn't care. For the past three weeks it appears the packers who kill cows and bulls need something to kill. A term you will hear around the sale barn when they get that aggressive is that they "need blood on the kill floor."

Dairy cows in Texas, New Mexico and Kansas have tested positive for highly pathogenic avian influenza. Laboratories have not found changes to the virus that would make it more transmissible to humans, which indicates the current risk to the public remains low.

Feeder cattle numbers at the sale have fallen off, which indicates the bulk of the wheat pasture run where they intend to harvest it has already hit the market. With bigger numbers already in the feedlots, I still feel there are fewer cattle outside. Starting in the middle of last year, we thought feeder cattle were high and pulled some forward then, and the market just kept getting higher, which continued to pull cattle forward.

Quite a lot of grazing steers were costing $1,800 per head to go back outside either to wheat and then grass or for some just grass. Let's just say some buyers had more faith in the market than I did or probably had a better banker. Right now I am buying heifers weighing 270 pounds and paying what I was trying to sell my 600-pound heifers for a year ago.

Yesterday I found $20 in the parking lot, and I thought "What would Jesus do?" So I turned it into wine.

One little bit of marriage advice that some of you guys might find handy or good to know is to never ask your wife what time dinner will be ready when she is mowing the lawn.

"Editor's note: Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattleman who grew up on his family's ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma."

Sedation Dentistry Calms Fears...
 Take a pill and snooze through your dental appointment.

For many Americans, going to the dentist is a frightful event. If you are one of the 145 million people who avoid the dentist due to fear, we have the solution... Sedation Dentistry.

You can now experience your dental appointment through a totally relaxed and comfortable environment. With the help of Sedation Dentistry, you will wake up to find that your dental appointment is over and the restorations have been completed painlessly.

For those with a busy schedule, we can accomplish more dentistry in one appointment which means fewer visits to the dentist.

Sedation Dentistry is available for everything from simple restoration to the most complex procedures. We are very sensitive to our patients needs, especially those with high fear and apprehension. Now we can put an end to anxiety with this safe and wonderful technique of sedation.

We are proud to be able to offer Sedation Dentistry and offer hope to those who have been avoiding the dentist due to fear. If you would like to know more, call our team with your questions.
