Standing in the Gate: Markets, Memories, and the Men Who Show Up

by: Jerry Nine – Woodward, Okla.

I had someone ask, “Do you ever get nervous selling?” I said “Yes.” They asked, “When?” I said, “Every time.” I’ve sold cull bulls that got loose and turned over 5 panels and left the barn. I’ve sold yearlings that stampeded and jumped into the alley and cleared the top rail of the fence. I’ve had cows jump out of the alley back into the pen.

Astronauts call their liftoff “punching out.” Cattlemen call their finishing weight “punching out.” That refers to the idea of finishing weight. If you’re really good, it’s 500–600 pounds of gain. If not, it’s more loss.

A young man once asked me, “When do you stop wondering how long it takes for flies to get on cattle?”

I said immediately.
“Oh,” goats. It really takes 2 hours. On cattle, dogs, and cats, 5 minutes.

Anyone that says flies and dogs are not a problem has never managed animals. Open a trailer and realize they have been in it for a while. If you haven’t smelled it, you’ll never forget it once you do.

This week the market’s made a little jump. Sometimes it’s just hot and dry. Sometimes it’s not. Sometimes it’s work. Sometimes it’s just about being willing to stand in front of them.

Editor’s note: The views expressed here are the author’s own and do not represent the view of The Penny News. Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattleman who grew up on his family’s ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma.

BRANDON HICKEY 580-497-6095

Memorial Day weekend, second day of remembrance, independence, sacrifice and freedom. It is a time we talk about the price of service. One of the valid comparisons I have heard this weekend is that 2.3% of Americans signed on the line to serve. Less than 1% are active military.

On the other hand, about 2.3% of Americans are farmers or ranchers. That’s a powerful statement. So this week I asked a friend of mine at the Elk City Livestock Auction to write down some of the prices I talk about. Here’s a few examples from May 23, 2023:

Black steers 4 wt. - $2.55–$2.75, Black heifers 4 wt. - $2.25–$2.50, 5 wt. black steers - $2.45–$2.65, 6 wt. black steers - $2.25–$2.45, 6 wt. black heifers - $2.00–$2.30, Butcher bulls brought $90–$115, Butcher cows brought $70–$95.

But I also figured somewhere around 1,738 buyers were sitting out. Why was clear from the prices I read. Many feeder buyers have quit buying short-term outsiders to go on feed.

This is really deflating

Clinton and Sayre Awarded Major Route 66 Grants to Boost Tourism, Honor Heritage

May 20, 2025- Two western Oklahoma towns are getting a facelift thanks to Route 66 Revitalization Grants. Clinton received nearly $1 million to build a massive 400-foot sign structure over the original 1926 Route 66. It'll serve as a cultural gateway into the town's historic district, celebrating local heritage with immersive art and storytelling.

Meanwhile, Sayre picked up $50,000 to install a 30-foot steel sculpture—featuring a Route 66 shield inside a giant horseshoe—at the entrance of Sayre City Park. It highlights the town's ties to both horses and the highway.

These projects follow earlier awards in the region. Canute received nearly $700,000 to repurpose a building on 66 into a “Village Hub” with artisan booths and to restore the cotton boll sign. Elk City's Chamber of Commerce was awarded over $200,000 to enhance the Parker Drilling Rig #114, tying the oil industry to Route 66's legacy. These efforts are part of “Project 66,” a statewide push to restore and reimagine the Mother Road before its 2026 centennial.

RED FLAG WARNING ABOUT SCAMS

Red Flags for Scammers Targeting Sellers:

1. Overpayment Offers – They send a check or money order for more than the asking price and ask for a refund of the difference. The check later bounces.
2. Too Eager to Buy – The buyer doesn't ask any questions, wants to buy unseen, or insists on immediate purchase/shipping.
3. Requests for Personal Info – Asking for your email and/or address before any legit interaction has occurred.
4. Third-Party Pickup or Courier – Claiming a "mover" or "agent" will pick up the item and pay you separately.
5. Out-of-Area or International Buyers – Unusual interest from faraway places for a local listing.

Red Flags for Scammers Targeting Buyers:

1. Too-Good-To-Be-True Pricing – Items like cars, electronics, or pets listed far below market value.
2. No Local Contact or Meeting Refusal – Seller won't meet in person or talk on the phone, insisting on email only.
3. Pressure to Pay Upfront – Being rushed to send money before seeing the item, often via wire services or gift cards.
4. Vague or Copied Ad Text – Poor grammar, generic descriptions, or multiple listings with identical wording.
5. Rental Scams – Listings for homes or apartments that aren't really available—often copied from other sites.
