Talks with Jerry Nine

by: Jerry Nine – Woodward, Okla.

In this world there are 2 types of people. There are givers and there are takers. Have you ever noticed the takers are not ever really happy. And I don't think I have ever seen a giver that was unhappy. I had a gal that worked for me at the sale that was definitely a giver. She never had much money in fact often she might only have $20 - $50 to her name. But if someone we all knew got sick she was often the first to say let's get a pot together, they are going to need it with their problem. She would say, "Here is $5.00. Let's start a pot". Me and a few others could have given $5,000 easier than she could have given $5, but she was always willing to help. And that taker is never satisfied. Just as soon as they land that big deal that they really weren't entitled too then they are off looking for another victim. Which bracket do you fall into?

Don't get me wrong, I like to make money and it has always been a challenge in the cattle business to try to figure out what is the best buy or what would make the most money. But, I also get a lot of satisfaction from helping someone less fortunate and particularly if they appreciate it.

If you don't teach your kids to work for what they get they will never be able to keep it. In fact, often the worst thing you can do for your kids is stack up a bunch of money in front of them if they don't learn the value of it. Look around. Too often the parents work all their life and give it to siblings that hate each other over the smallest things in inheritance. How sad that is. Us 4 kids were very fortunate that we all got along after splitting mom and dad's estate and not an angry word. Both mom and dad were Christians but I have seen that at times where the parents were and the kids hate each other to this day. It's hard to I'm sorry for someone and particularly if you think they were in the wrong. I'm almost positive that God smiles when you say "I am sorry", but really down deep you feel the other one should be saying it. Even Jesus forgave those that crucified him and nailed him to a cross. I can't imagine for me being able to say forgive them and hanging on a cross. Even Erika Kirk said, "I forgive that man that killed my husband", a few days after.

We are dry. And a lot of our grass looks like the dead of winter. I ask you this week to pray for rain and not just for your area, but any area around that needs it. And if you say that you don't believe in God, I ask you to say a prayer anyway for the rest that do.

My doctor said, "Do you eat nuts after your workout like I told you?" I said, "I do everytime". The doctor said, "Which ones? Peanuts? Walnuts? Or Almonds?" I said, "No, none of them, I eat donuts".

My ex said, "You just lost the best thing alive!" She's wrong cause I called my best friend and he's still alive.

Editor's note: The views expressed here are the author's own and do not represent the view of The Penny News. Jerry Nine, Woodward, Oklahoma, is a lifetime cattleman who grew up on his family's ranch near Slapout, Oklahoma.

Historic Route 66 Neon Sign to Shine Again in Erick

May 14, 2026 • Erick, OK — A piece of Route 66 history will officially come back to life on Thursday, May 22, as the restored West Winds Court neon sign is relit during a special public ceremony in Erick.

The lighting ceremony will begin at 8 p.m. at 619 West Roger Miller Boulevard in Erick, where community members, Route 66 enthusiasts, and visitors are invited to gather and celebrate the restoration of the historic roadside landmark.

The restoration project was made possible through funding from the Route 66 Revitalization Grant through the Oklahoma Route 66 Commission and the Oklahoma Department of Commerce. Organizers say the project is aimed at preserving the legacy and nostalgia of America’s “Mother Road” while honoring the businesses and attractions that once welcomed travelers through western Oklahoma.

The West Winds Court sign has long stood as a recognizable symbol of Route 66 culture in Erick. With the restoration complete, the neon sign will once again light up the highway, bringing renewed attention to the town’s historic connection to Route 66 tourism.

Officials say the evening will celebrate not only the sign itself, but also the partnerships and preservation efforts that helped make the restoration possible. The event will recognize the importance of maintaining historic landmarks for future generations while continuing to promote tourism and local pride along Oklahoma’s stretch of Route 66.

Visitors attending the ceremony will have the opportunity to experience the glow of classic roadside Americana and witness the sign illuminated once again as part of the ongoing effort to preserve Route 66 history.

For more information about the event, call 580-526-3924.

Arkansas Man Charged With Seven Counts of Arson in Beckham County Grass Fires

May 18, 2026 • Beckham County, OK — An Arkansas man is facing seven felony arson charges in Beckham County after investigators alleged he intentionally set multiple grass fires north of the intersection of State Highway 6 and State Highway 283 near Sayre.

According to court records, Phillip Lain Janes was charged with seven counts of third-degree arson in Beckham County District Court. Investigators allege the fires were set April 24 on private property. Each count is a Class C1 felony punishable by up to eight years in prison and fines up to $10,000.

The probable cause affidavit states Beckham County deputies were first dispatched to a grass fire near Highway 283 and Oklahoma Highway 6 around 10 a.m. on April 24. The Berlin Volunteer Fire Chief reportedly told deputies he had seen a man carrying shotguns walking southbound near the fire area.

Deputies later located Janes near North 1870 Road and East 1130 Road after receiving reports of a possible sighting. Authorities said Janes requested medical assistance for diabetic issues and was transported to Great Plains Medical Center in Elk City before later being booked into the Beckham County Detention Center on a marijuana possession complaint.

During an interview with investigators, Janes allegedly told agents he was in Oklahoma on vacation turkey hunting with his girlfriend and had previously worked for the State of Arkansas conducting prescribed burns and controlled fires. Investigators said Janes denied setting the fires but admitted seeing them behind him while he was on the property.

The affidavit states investigators later examined the fire scene and identified seven separate fires on the property. Agents reported finding red spray paint residue at multiple burn locations and said they believed spray paint had been used as an accelerant. A can of Krylon Fusion Matte Fire Red spray paint was reportedly discovered hidden in nearby plum thickets.

Investigators later reviewed surveillance footage and transaction records from the Elk City Walmart. According to the affidavit, the same brand and color of spray paint was purchased April 23 by Janes’ girlfriend while Janes was reportedly seen nearby with a shopping cart before the pair left.

Authorities also alleged boot tracks found near the fires matched the tread pattern of boots Janes was wearing when transported to the hospital.

The affidavit states Janes later told investigators he did not want his girlfriend to “get into trouble for this because it was all me” before requesting an attorney.

Court records show bond was set at $50,000.
